

3 Nov 2020 | 4:00 -5:30 pm (CET)

WayOut

The Role of Gender in Exit Programmes

Pan-European interactive discussion on gender-relevant aspects of exit work international experts:

Dr. Katherine Brown (University of Birmingham, UK),
Dr. Joana Cook (Leiden University, Netherlands), Myassa Kraitt (Social-Cultural Anthropologist, Austria), Karen Winther (Filmmaker, Norway)

moderated by:

Ariane Wolf (Violence Prevention Network)

streaming and information:

www.facebook.com/ViolencePreventionNetworkDeutschland

Detailed Programme

Title: The Role of Gender in Exit Programmes

A Pan-European discussion on gender-relevant aspects of exit work

Tuesday, 3 November 2020, 4pm - 5:30pm

Until 4:00	Technical setup of live participants and experts joining over discord servers
4:00 - 4:10	Brief introduction of the topic, format, the WayOut project, and live participants. Introduction to the documentary “Exit: Leaving extremism behind” by Karen Winther (Ariane Wolf)
4:10 - 4:13	2.5 minute interview excerpt of the documentary of a female former right-wing extremist
4:13 – 4:20	Input by Karen Winther on difficulties and challenges that are specific to girls and women in disengagement/ deradicalisation processes
4:20 – 4:22	Second 2 minute excerpt of the documentary (showing the double-standards women face when leaving extremist groups)
4:22 – 4:32	Key note address by Dr. Joana Cook: <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Thematic overview: relevance of the topic, international perspective on disengagement/ exit work , status quo of research

- raise main questions that will be discussed:
 - ➔ To what extent are current exit programmes adapted to the needs of girls and women?
 - ➔ Which ideas of masculinity are conveyed in existing exit programmes?
 - ➔ Which particular risks and challenges are girls and women facing in deradicalisation and reintegration processes?
 - ➔ Which aspects need to be considered when implementing gender-sensitive exit programmes?

4:30- 4:35	Expert Panel: Introduction of the experts, their professional backgrounds and the topics to be discussed (Ariane Wolf)
4:35 – 4:45	Expert input by Myassa Kraitt: Thematic focuses: perspective of front-line practitioners, disengagement and reintegration work with female returnees, roles of different actors (security and non-security) involved in exit work 1-2 follow-up questions by the moderator
4:45 – 4:55	Expert input by Fabian Wichmann: tbc, Thematic focuses: right-wing extremism and gender/ images of masculinity, exit work in Germany and other European Countries 1-2 follow-up questions by the moderator
4:55 – 5:05	Expert input by Dr. Katherine Brown: Thematic focuses: intersection of P/CVE and Gender, research perspective, disengagement/ deradicalisation circumstances for females from religiously motivated backgrounds
5:05 – 5:30	Final discussion round with live participants: What do we need to develop and implement gender-sensitive exit programmes? (gaps and positive potential)